

Global Trade Compliance Analyst – Contractor

Location: On-site in Palm Bay, FL

Responsibilities

- Ensures operational compliance with the ITAR, EAR, and OFAC regulations on a daily basis;
- Reviews export shipment documentation, makes license determinations, and releases shipments for export in compliance with U.S. and foreign laws and regulations
- Assists with HTSUS, Schedule B, ITAR, and EAR classifications
- Processes foreign person visitor requests and employee international travel requests
- Work with internal and external stakeholders to gather required information to support the review and/or release of shipments, to enable classification of items, to address Trade Compliance requests, questions, and concerns, to provide Trade Compliance guidance to the business, and to otherwise assist with Trade Compliance activities
- Assists with process improvements and the implementation of compliance best practices, supports trade related projects such as system and process integration, modification and/or updates to trade compliance policies and procedures, internal reviews and/or audits, company-wide and new hire trade compliance training, and other projects as assigned
- Maintains all export related records including records related to orders/shipments, classifications, technical data transfers, visitors, travel requests, etc.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college and a minimum of 3 years total relevant Trade Compliance experience.
- CUSECO™ Certification and/or Licensed Customs Broker highly desirable for this position
- In-depth knowledge and ability to interpret government regulations and laws relating to ITAR, EAR, CBP, OFAC
- Experience providing import and export classification advice

- Experience with rad hard products or ECCN 9A515 and Category 3 (Electronics) under the EAR highly desirable
- Strong ability to analyze and determine accurate product and technology classifications and to provide classification advice and counseling
- Experience assessing import and export compliance scenarios, processes, procedures, and resources; providing recommendations, and developing policies and procedures
- Good writing, presentation, and verbal skills; as well as, self-motivation, organization and planning skills
- Ability to develop good working relationships with customers, suppliers, service providers, and staff
- Ability to exercise tact, restraint, and discretion in critical issues
- Good computer skills including a familiarity with on-line export compliance tools (e.g. Amber Road, MK Denial) and Microsoft Office, ACE system and EEI experience are very desirable
- Experience with mergers and acquisitions helpful

If you are interested in applying to this position, please send your resume to Jimmy Vo at jimmy.vo.yb@renesas.com.